Incorporated in 1811, Port Gibson was first settled by Samuel Gibson. The battle of Port Gibson was fought nearby on May 1, 1863—part of General Ulysses Grant’s Vicksburg campaign. He ordered the town spared because it was too beautiful to burn.

The steeple of the First Presbyterian Church has a iconic gold finger pointing to heaven.