The Hernando Water Tower is a downtown landmark and was built in 1925 as part of a $20,000 bond issue to build a water system. It was used until 2009 when a new tank was built outside of downtown.