The Biedenharn Coca-Cola Museum is a collective effort between the Vicksburg Foundation for Historic Preservation and the Biedenharn Family. The original bottlers of Coca-Cola. The museum, in downtown Vicksburg, is where Coca-Cola was first bottled in 1894. It has a soda fountain and memorabilia.