Eureka Masonic College, also known as the Little Red School House (originally the Richland Literary Institute) is located in Holmes County. It was established in 1847 by the Masonic Lodges of Holmes County. The Lodges raised $3,400 to erect the two-story brick building. After the Civil War, Holmes County took over the abandoned schoolhouse to use as a segregated public school for African Americans (until 1959). It has been restored by the Grand Chapter of Mississippi.

Brought to you by Mississippi Today mississippitoday.org