THE ANGEL TREE is a piece of art in Bay St. Louis carved out of a dead oak tree that saved three people and a dog during Hurricane Katrina. Dayle Lewis carved it with a chainsaw and it was commissioned by the survivors.