The Alamo Theater on Farish Street in Jackson was built in 1949. Movies and concerts (Dorothy Moore) were held there. For many decades it served as a major African American entertainment venue.